GRAND RECEPTION AND JOLLIFICATION.

The pastor, officers and members of Third Street Bethel A. M. E. Church wish to thank very sincerely the whole city at large for the kind response and participation in their ticent house warming. The various pastors who came to us with their choirs and congregations, including the Tents and Sons and Daughters of Peace gave us more than $130 in cash. The reception staged at the parsonage, 606 North Eighth last Tuesday night was the grandest and most unique of its kind ever known in Richmond.

More than 200 persons filled the spacious rooms and parlors of the parsonage bringing with them bed linens, table linens, food stuff, aluminum ware, towels, fruits, preserves rugs, mops, brooms and other useful pricles to the amount of more than $100. Friends from Roanoke, Va. cases, table cloths, preserves and other tokens. Among the surprises was the drop ping in at one of the services of Rev. Mr. A. L. James, D. D., pastor First Baptist Church. Roanoke, Va., and of Major W. F. Crowell at the recep tion, also of Roanoke. They both spoke in the highest terms of the culture and efficiency of Dr. and Mrs.

Mr. W. W. Adams was governor of the House Reception and managed with great dignity and poise the af fair of the evening. Beautifully dressed little children brought in the presentations keeping step to sweet march strains and gave them to the Elders who made the presentation

Dr. W. S. Smith presented the 108 of bread; Dr. Bessie B. Tharps, the broom; Dr. J. W. Sanders of Farmville, special house guest, the Holy Bib'e; and Mrs. Anna Augustus and Mrs. Annie Johnson, the comfort blankets. Each made timely speeches. Mrs. G. H. Hatcher received the gifts and then responded very touchingly and graciously.

TOASTMASTER EGGLESTON OFFICIATED.

Mr. Lemuel Eggleston was toast master for the occasion. With great wi- and humor he presented many of the distinguished guests for toasts. Toasts were made by the following persons: Rev. and Mrs. A. A Hector, Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Johnson, Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Sanders, Mrs. Fannie Payne Clarke, Dr. Tharps and Law yer Denny and others. Bro. E. J. Johnson, superintendent and Third Street Utility Man made a great speech in which he thanked the whole city and praised Rev. and Mrs. Hatcher in the highest terms. Dr. J. W. Sanders and Rev. F. H. Gow have this to say of the Third Street A. M. E. Church:

FINE WORKING TEAM.

"Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Hatcher constitute a working team in church hard to duplicate. Mrs. Hatcher is an organizer of women and children and is able to get things done. It is a pleasure and inspiration to stop in and serve in any way. Three intel ligent young women sit with them as Matrons of the Children's Church. The largest week end Bible Cass in the Race is taught by Dr. Hatcher each Friday evening. Special empha sis is laid upon the prophetic and dispensational significances. All Dr. Rev. Dr. R.
